

King Jesus:
The King Predicts His Death
March 29, 2026

Mark 9:30-37

Key Point: Without the cross, there is no forgiveness.

Why are the Christmas and Easter stories explicitly joined?

Jesus is our:

- a) Good friend, neighbour and rescuer.
- b) Pastor, Rabbi and Scribe.
- c) Prophet, Priest, and King.
- d) Moses, Elijah and Abraham.

When I use the phrase King Jesus, what image or verse comes to mind? _____

What are the three things Jesus told his disciples that must happen as part of his mission? I must _____. I must _____. I would _____ again.

Five statements from Mark 9:30-37

1. The King Clearly Predicts His Death. _____

2. The Disciples Do Not Understand the King. _____

3. The Disciples Argue About Greatness. _____

4. The King Redefines Greatness. _____

5. The King Welcomes the Least. _____

Why are the events of Easter so life-changing? _____
