

Advent Season:
The Hope of Advent
December 21, 2025

1 Peter 1:3-4, Romans 15:13, Romans 5:3-4

Key Point: The cradle and the cross are perfect reminders of hope.

I said in Advent God shows up. What do I mean by that?

Including today, what are my four themes of Advent for 2025?

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____
- d) _____

Which one resonates with you and why? _____

What is your definition of hope? _____

In Romans 15:13, the verse says, 'May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace.' What does that mean? _____

In 1 Peter 1:3-4, what is the living hope Peter is talking about?

How does the living hope of the resurrected Christ help us in our darkest moments? _____

In living out our hope, I said we should glory in our sufferings (Romans 5:3). Why would we do that? It sounds painful.

From Romans 5:3-4, what does suffering produce? _____

And what does _____ produce?

Romans 5:4 what does _____ produce which leads to

From our five-week study on the meaning of Advent, what's your takeaway?
